

→ DUAL ENROLLMENT PATHWAYS

Tiffin University offers graduate courses that count as dual credit toward both undergraduate and graduate degrees. This opportunity allows students to finish their graduate degree program faster and save money. After completing these bridge courses and graduating with a bachelor's degree from TU, students will be able to complete their graduate degree in fewer credit hours as well as qualify for Tiffin University's alumni tuition discount on remaining graduate courses.

STEP 1

Enroll in an undergraduate program and become a dual enrollment student during your senior year. Work with the identified representative of the school of interest to determine eligibility and concentration.

STEP 2

Finish your undergraduate degree and enroll in your graduate degree program to complete your needed credits.

STEP 3

Submit your graduation application and graduate with your master's degree from Tiffin University!
